Cambodian Ministries for Christ International distributed wheel chairs to 2 handicapped in Chuk District, kampot Province, with the presence of the Chief of Chuk Social Works and Veteran Office , Kraing Sbov Commune Chief, as well as Pastor of Chuk Cheuteal Church.

These are the activities of the Country Director of CMC’s distribution:
 1- Mr. Long Chhay, a 40 -year-old male, resides in Sath Pong Village, Sath Pong Commune, Chuk District, Kampot Province.

CMC distributed a wheel chair to Grandma 75-year-old Touch Hin, Pastor Yung Soth's mother, residing in #360BT, Tnort Chrum Village, Beong Tumpon Commune, Meanchey District, Phnom Penh.

Grandma Touch Hin thanked Cambodian Ministries for Christ for providing her with this chair.

This is a wheel chair labeled with Cambodian Ministries for Christ.

Cambodia-based Director of Cambodian Ministries for Christ stuck a label with Cambodian Ministries for Christ on the wheel chair.

This is Pastor Touch Bunsoeum and Grandma Touch Hin's family, being taken a photograph of.

Grandma is very happy that the donor pays attention to Her, a poor handicapped. Therefore, her pray is that May all donors peaceful in Jesus Christ.

The members of her family are very happy that Cambodian Ministries for Christ International provided their mother or grandma with this wheel chair, which makes her be able to move anywhere more easily. Their pray is that May Cambodian Ministries for Christ International progress to help poor people because there are many elder people and handicapped in Cambodia.

Then, Pastor Touch Bunsoeum had a chat with Grandma Touch Hin's family and explained to them about the works that Cambodian Ministries for Christ International did and its starting time. But Pastor Khiev Vannlong's wife said: "I have never heard the name of this organization and this is the first time I have heard it".

Cambodian Ministries for Christ donated $330 to Mr. Sophorn Daniel, a poor student whose major is Project Development and Programs, to continue his studies at Build Bright University.

Cambodian Ministries for Christ International donated $330 to 11 poor students in Kampot for the period of 3 months—from January through March, 2007—with each of them getting $10 per month to spend on their studies in Kampot as shown in the pictures below:
